Youth Advisory Council Update

In May, Youth Advisory Council members planned for the 'Be the Change' Youth Training Program which will take place June 30-July 2, 2024. They discussed effective in-person facilitation strategies and workshop objectives and continued to prepare for their presentations on youth mental health and advocacy. Registration is now open for our 'Be the Change' Youth Training Program taking place this summer in Washington, DC!

Youth Development Mapping Tool

Mapping tool utilizes our latest Youth Development Survey data and Geographic Information System (GIS) technology to offer an interactive view of the connection between youth development and school-based health care. This tool is useful for everyone—youth and adults alike—to learn about youth-serving organizations and youth development-focused SBHCs across nationwide, connect with other groups by location or interest, foster community through knowledge and resource sharing. Use the features below to start searching! Don't see your SBHC or organization? Go to our request forms page and add your data.
